Government after careful examination of the recommendations of the Group of Ministers hereby order the following reforms concerning the Commissionerate of Tenders:

- 1) The Commissionerate of Tenders is to be continued, as it is a time-tested institution established to bring objectivity, neutrality & transparency in scrutiny and finalization of the tenders.
- 2) The tenders for all the works costing more than Rs.10.00 crore of all Engineering departments will be referred to Commissionerate of Tenders along with technical bid evaluation and price bid evaluation for consideration against Rs.2.00 Crores limitation prescribed in G.O.Ms.No.94, I&CAD (PW-COD) Dept., Dt.01-07-2003.
- 3) The tenders referred by the Engineering departments to the Commissionerate of Tenders shall be disposed by the COT within a week from the date of receipt.
- 4) To strengthen the Tender Committee of Commissionerate of Tenders, it is decided to include the Chief Engineer, Public Health as a Member, in the COT.
- 5) In order to process the tender of all Engineering Departments within a week, the Commissionerate of Tenders has to be strengthened with the following additional staff to be drafted on deputation from all the Engineering Departments such as R&B, PR, PH and I&CAD.
 - a) Executive Engineer - 1 No.
 - b) Deputy Executive Engineers - 2 Nos.
 - c) Assistant Executive Engineers - 5 Nos.
 - d) Superintending Engineers - 1 No.
- 6) These revised norms will be applicable to all tenders processed after the date of issue of these orders.

2. Government hereby order that the Commissionerate of Tenders shall strictly adhere to the time limit stipulated for disposal of tenders. The Chief Engineers of all the Departments are directed to process the tenders in the required mode while submitting the requisite information to the Commissionerate of Tenders.
