DCE-II

According to provisions in para 89 of A.P. PW 'A' Code the Divisional Accounts Officer is the Financial Assistant & Advisor to Divisional Officer on all financial matters. All sanctions are required to pass through D.A.O. for scrutiny of financial aspects etc., The forwarding slip of Estimates & Agreements provide for scrutiny and signature of D.A.O. The matter of scrutiny of estimates at Divisional level by D.A.O. was discussed in several meetings and also during the workshop on 11-03-2004 in the Accountant General's Office. During the meeting it was decided to reiterate the instructions in manuals for strict observance. The Divisional Accounts Officer (Works) of the Division should check the estimate and ensure that the provisions in the estimate are in conformity of Government instructions, applicability of S.S.R., arithmetical accuracy, classification in head of account prescribed by Government necessity etc., of estimate.

2. Government after careful consideration of the matter direct the Engineers-in-Chief/Chief Engineers of Engineering Departments to issue suitable instructions to all the Divisional officers under their control to get the estimates checked invariably by D.A.O. (W).

3. These instructions should be followed strictly.
